Tinkling Spring's pumpkin patch was a success again this year! We had 140 volunteers in 23 days. Sales and donations combined brought in $10,085.22 in just three weeks. Total sales were $9,399.36, of which we kept 33.3% ($3,129.99) and total donations were $685.86, of which we kept 100%, giving us total funds for Haiti of $3,815.85. Half will be sent directly to Haiti Education Foundation to aid in their ongoing efforts to rebuild schools and the other half will be used for the medical mission trip to Haiti in July 2012. We are grateful to the incredible volunteers who helped unload 1,695 pumpkins from the truck and to the dedicated individuals who manned the pumpkin patch even in cold, wind, rain and SNOW! This endeavor could not have been accomplished without each one of you. Thanks also to those who supported us by buying pumpkins. Our brothers and sisters in Haiti will be blessed because of your generous gift of time and energy. Jean & Starke Smith, 2012 coordinators

So, you think you know all about Jonah? Isn't that the story about the guy being swallowed by the whale? You will be surprised by the life of this reluctant prophet. Make sure you are at the adult study on Wonderful Wednesdays in November and December, 6:30 p.m., in the Sanctuary.
