

Additional Announcements

Souper Bowl of Caring – update! Thank you so much to all who gave financially and/or donated food items to support the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank. This year we collected $553.97 and 184 food items, compared to last year's figures of $539.33 and 99 food items. Thank you again for being a blessing to our community.

Employment Opportunities: The Presbytery has announced some job openings. For more information, please see the postings on the community board.

SPYCE High School Retreat, March 2-4. "In the Potter's Hands" includes creative keynotes with Howard and Meg Dudley, hands-on projects to tap into the gifts of your hands, fellowship, music, recreation, bonfire, coffee house, worship, and more. Register by February 26th to attend the retreat for $80 per person. Tinkling Spring youth stay in the Tinkling Cottage which cuts the cost of the retreat by $15.00.

Books for Africa: Thank you for your generous response to our Books for Africa project. We collected 658 books. These have been delivered to the collection site to be warehoused until this Presbytery project is complete. ~ Ramona Bosserman

Additional Announcements

Souper Bowl of Caring – update! Thank you so much to all who gave financially and/or donated food items to support the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank. This year we collected $553.97 and 184 food items, compared to last year's figures of $539.33 and 99 food items. Thank you again for being a blessing to our community.

Employment Opportunities: The Presbytery has announced some job openings. For more information, please see the postings on the community board.

SPYCE High School Retreat, March 2-4. "In the Potter's Hands" includes creative keynotes with Howard and Meg Dudley, hands-on projects to tap into the gifts of your hands, fellowship, music, recreation, bonfire, coffee house, worship, and more. Register by February 26th to attend the retreat for $80 per person. Tinkling Spring youth stay in the Tinkling Cottage which cuts the cost of the retreat by $15.00.

Books for Africa: Thank you for your generous response to our Books for Africa project. We collected 658 books. These have been delivered to the collection site to be warehoused until this Presbytery project is complete. ~ Ramona Bosserman